TATTS MEMBERS AND MATES DOMINATE BONDI TENS RUGBY

Members of Squad for Bondi 10's

Back Row:

Richard Harry, John Langford, Phil Mathers, Andrew Gregerson, Will Collett, Brock McDermott, David Wilson, Josh Philpot (coach), Tom Johnston.

Front Row:

Matt Collett, Andrew Coorey (waterboy), Nathan Trist, Tim Birch, Matt Todman, Jeremy Farrell, Billy Johnston, Artie Sanchez (masseur).

Absent:

Logan, Pillinger, Yorke, Mar, Xavier.

On the 9th and 10th of February Tattersalls members and their friends were a dominant force in the 3rd Annual Bondi Tens rugby event run by Woollahra Colleagues to raise money for Bali Bombing related charities.

The first thing to acknowledge is that the event was organised by Tatts men like Richard McGrath, Lachlan Benson, Ben Garland, Jack Mesley and Cameron Ireland and was run very well from start to finish.

Next we need to congratulate the Gents Club who were the winners of the main Cup competition and this team included our members Jono Bowman, Hugh Baggie, Mark Owens, Sam Moles and a collection of their mates who played excellent football from start to finish, including a rather solid start against the actual Tattersalls Club team on Friday afternoon. In a tight finish they deserved to win (again!) with their keen defence and well organised size and speed.

Finally we need to report on the actual Tattersalls Club team. A great attitude characterised the team, the tone set from the top by the attitude of Wallaby members David Wilson and Richard Harry, by the workrate of forwards Andrew Logan, Phil Mathers, Christian Bailey and Xavier Craven, and by the hard running and tackling from backs Andrew Gregerson, Matt Todman, Jeremy Farrell and Matt Collett.

A key issue for Tatts was our ability get friends to come on board and credit needs to go to Wallaby John Langford, Phil's Macquarie Bank mate, Brock McDermott, Matt's experienced brother Will, Henry Yorke all the way from the UK, the Johnston brothers (one accountant one lawyer), real estate spiv B Pillinger, current and previous Sevens reps, Nathan Trist and Dave Kelaher, Adonis like Tim Birch, and speedy winger Ben Mar whose medial ligament was offered up for the club's glory, such as it was.

We won four games out of six and lost in the grand final of the Plate competition against a well run Balmain team some which had as many players below 25 that we had over 35.

We need to thank Sydney Uni's Josh Philpot for coaching us astutely in his own time.

Club masseur Artie Sanchez was a crucial factor also as he kept some young and old bones moving for the full two days.

Massive appreciation goes finally to Denis Foster Insurance Brokers, Hill Rogers Financial Services, and Tatts members for supporting us with sponsorship and raffle proceeds.

Early reports are that the organising committee were on track to raise their goal of $20,000 making it $60,000 for the 3 years.

Andrew Coorey, team manager (sort of).

Club Secretary Mark Bartrop on the left congratulates the Super 14 tipping competition winner Tom Lingard.

“Love and War” the official Tattersalls Cup winner

Tattersalls Member, Matt Souter was a crew member on “Love and War” in the 2006 Sydney to Hobart. Love and War was declared the official winner of the Tattersalls Cup, the trophy awarded to the winner of the race on IRC handicap. It was the boats 3rd overall win, only the 2nd boat in the history of the race to achieve 3 overall wins.

A magnificent achievement considering the other 2 wins were in the 70s when the boat was owned and raced by ocean racing legend Peter Kurts.

Matt Souter also crewed onboard

Kokomo when it won the Farr 40 national title in February 2007.

Kokomo, with Matt as a vital member of the crew, is now competing on the European Farr 40 circuit which culminates in the World Championships in Copenhagen in late August.

Good Luck Matt.
